

BOTTOM UP TO KYOTO Project Team & Partners

are pleased to invite you to the following workshop:

COST CUTTING WITH SMART LIGHTING

HOW THREE MUNICIPALITIES (IN 24 MONTHS) SAVED 1 MILLION EUROS IN ENERGY CONSUMPTION AND 40% IN CO2 EMISSIONS

Wednesday 2nd December 2009

10:00 to 14:00

The Centre, 22 avenue Marnix, 1000 Brussels, Belgium

PROGRAMME

Welcome and introduction by M.Gerald Strickland, BUtK Project Leader

- 1. BUtK, an overview by M. Marc Guiraud, Project Manager, European Lamp Companies Federation
- 2. IEE-funded projects in the field of street lighting by Dr. Christophe Coudun, Project Officer, Executive Agency for Competitiveness and Innovation, European Commission
- 3. Performance contracting and ESCO models for public lighting by Sabine Piller, Project Manager, Berliner Energy Agency

Panel discussion and coffee break

- 4. Overcoming barriers to switching to efficient street lighting systems in Estonia, Poland and Slovenia by the BUtK project managers in the countries
- 5. EU Green Public Procurement policy by Mrs. Marie-Lise Fradet, Directorate General Environment, European Commission
- 6. Green energy-efficient lighting solutions for streets by M. François Fossey, Channel Marketing Director Outdoor Lighting, Europe-Middle east – Africa, Philips Lighting, the Netherlands

Panel discussion - lessons learnt and potential for improvement

-----
For further information please visit the BUtK website, <http://butk.elcfed.org/> or contact: Marc Guiraud, Project Manager, ELC, +32 487 344 876, marc.guiraud@elcfed.org

Supported by

Intelligent Energy  Europe